Civic Center Nearing Half Way Mark

With construction now nearing the half-way mark, the Lawndale civic center is beginning to shape up as one of the most beautiful and practical branch civic centers in the county. Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reported this week.

Final appearance of the building, located at 147th and Burin avenue, can be visualized now that construction has reached the present stage. Principal function of the civic center will be to provide greatly increased library, health, and recreational facilities to the people of Lawndale.

The new building will be the finest of its kind in Los Angeles county and a real credit to the community when completed, the supervisor declared.

Winners Of Hobo Contest Announced

Hobo Jungle Day was the highlight of activities at El Retiro Park on Thursday, July 6. Hamburgers and punch were sold to approximately 150 participants, it was reported.

The hobo costume contest had entered many varied and interesting types of hobo costumes. Winners in three places were picked in the funniest, saddest, most unique and most realistic categories.

The winner of first place in the funniest category was Ricky Anderson, 2, followed in second place by Ricky Gilbert, 9, and third place, Marjorie Wisdom, 9.

First, second and third place winners in the saddest costume section were Ed Holmes, 8, Deborah Ann Hamada, 7, and Jimmy Telford, 6.

Chris Johnson, 6, and Karen Johnson, 4, tied for first place in the most unique costume section. Secod and third places were won by Gina Corazza, 10, and Bobby Hill, 5.

The Most realistic costumes were won by Jimmy O'Gara, 10, Kathy O'Gara, 8, and Pamela Ferrone, 10, winning first, second and third places, respectively.

Pennsylvania Ave. Speed Reduced

Reduction of the speed limit on Pennsylvania ave. between Lomita Blvd. and Pacific Coast highway to 30 miles per hour was recommended Tuesday by County Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Chace said the recommendation was made after a careful study by the County Traffic Safety department, who felt the reduction of the speed limit on Pennsylvania ave. will greatly increase traffic safety in the area.
